Welcome to the AABC Alaska Senior All-Star Game!

David Porter
AABC President

Welcome to the 2012 AABC (Alaska Association of Basketball Coaches) Senior All-Star Game! On behalf of our association, I would like to congratulate the 48 athletes and the eight coaches and honorary coaches who have been selected to play in and coach these games. Last season, we brought back the AABC Senior All-Star Game, and I am proud to say it was an amazing success. I am certain this year will be no different, and I hope this experience will provide lasting memories for these exceptional athletes.

Our association was introduced to help promote the game of basketball, the student-athletes, and the coaches of Alaska. Through this All-Star Game, we help complete part of our mission and that is to honor and recognize players and coaches for their achievements and accomplishments in Alaska.

I would also like to take a moment to thank ASRC (Arctic Slope Regional Corporation) and Conoco Phillips for their endless support of youth in Alaska. These games and the success of our association would not be possible without the financial support of these two great companies. Thank you for believing in our mission and supporting these tremendous athletes!

If you have not done so already, please take some time and check out our web-site (www.alaskaabc.com) and see the direction our association is heading and has completed throughout this year. Thank you for your support and enjoy the games

Frank Ostanik
AABC Executive Board
President

As a 35-year resident of Alaska, former player and now a coach, I take great pride in the level of basketball played in our state. I am excited about this weekend as we honor a wonderful group of athletes and coaches. I have had the pleasure of playing in this game 24 years ago and coaching in it last year. It is my sincere hope this weekend is as memorable for our players and coaches as it was for me.

While this weekend is certainly about honoring our current athletes and coaches who have accomplished so much, it is also about honoring those players and coaches who came before us and helped lay a foundation allowing us to enjoy events like this, in the game we love. We are hopeful that all the coaches and players who came before us know how grateful we are.

As spectators, I hope you enjoy this weekend. Let's all sit back and watch some great Alaskan High School basketball.
