

Scavenger Hunt Grid

Kitchen	Safety Precaution for Child (Read Aloud)	Safety Tips for Parents	Mark Complete
Oven Cleaner Drain Cleaner Liquid Dish Soap Dishwasher Liquid/Powder/Pods Furniture Polish Glass Cleaner	Find an adult as soon as you see something that might be a poison.  Find an adult right away if you, a sibling or friend gets into something that could be poisonous.	Use child-resistant packages.  Use cabinet locks.  Keep the listed products and all other cleaners up high, out of reach, and out of sight of children.
Family Room	Safety Precaution for Child	Safety Tips for Parents	Mark Complete
Plants Tobacco/Nicotine Products Lamp Oils Alcoholic Beverages	Find an adult as soon as you see something that might be a poison.  Find an adult right away if you, a sibling or friend gets into something that could be poisonous.	Use child-resistant packages.  Use cabinet locks.  Keep the listed products out of reach, and out of sight of children.
Bedroom	Safety Precaution for Child	Safety Tips for Parents	Mark Complete
Perfumes/Colognes Medicine (prescription, over-the-counter and herbal/homeopathic) Cosmetics Baby Powder Liquid Makeup Nail Polish & Polish Remover Deodorant	Find an adult as soon as you see something that might be a poison.  Only take medicine if the grown up taking care of you (mom, dad, adult caregiver) gives it to you.  Find an adult right away if you, a sibling or friend gets into something that could be poisonous.	Use child-resistant packages.  Use cabinet locks.  Never call medicine candy to get a child to take it.  Keep the listed products out of reach, and out of sight of children.
Bathroom	Safety Precaution for Child	Safety Tips for Parents	Mark Complete
Medicine (prescription, over-the-counter and herbal/homeopathic) Aftershave Lotion Toilet Bowl Cleaner Air Deodorizer Shampoo/Hair Products Toothpaste/Mouthwash Deodorant	Find an adult as soon as you see something that might be a poison.  Only take medicine if the grown up taking care of you (mom, dad, adult caregiver) gives it to you.  Find an adult right away if	Use child-resistant packages.  Use cabinet locks.  Never call medicine candy to get a child to take it.  Keep the listed products

	you, a sibling or friend gets into something that could be poisonous.	out of reach, and out of sight of children.
Laundry Room/Garage/Basement	Safety Precaution for Child	Safety Tips for Parents	Mark Complete
Bleach Laundry Detergent Antifreeze Pesticides Gasoline Lighter Fluid Weed Killer Mothballs Windshield Washer Solution	Find an adult as soon as you see something that might be a poison.  Find an adult right away if you, a sibling or friend gets into something that could be poisonous.	Use child-resistant packages.  Use cabinet locks.  Keep the listed products out of reach, and out of sight of children.	