Day 9 - Micro Futures Pro Account

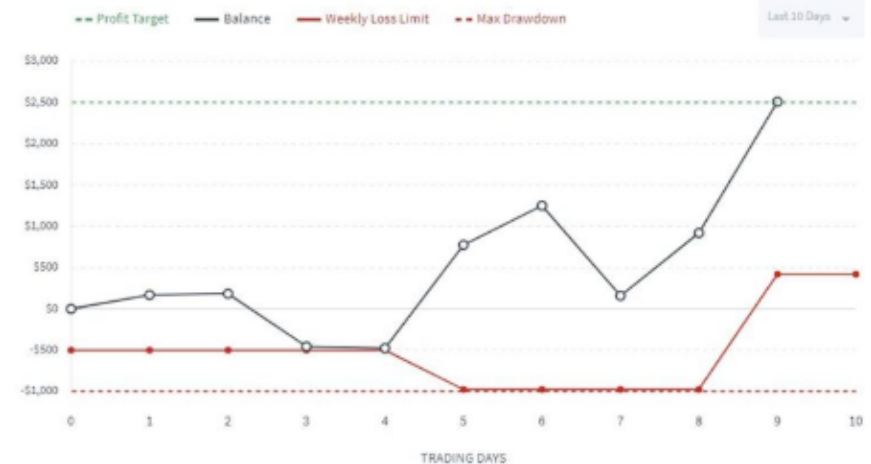

Chaos in the markets is a good thing if you can manage risk, and a horrible thing if you love to gamble. I used to be the latter and the past 7 years of practice has helped me get much closer to becoming the former.

I'm super proud to have completed the Pro Account with TopstepTrader and I look forward to the week or more off while the Funded Account is setup. Thanks for the opportunity TopstepTrader!
