

The Fine Print

1 Chronicles 29:10-14

The Big Idea: Getting the freedom financially to fully obey God.

The Bottom Line:

Our financial objective should be to honor God ... with His stuff.

Introduction:

The three laws of physical balance are the same as the three laws of financial balance. The three laws are as follows:

1. Reference Point
2. Constant Corrections
3. Clear Objective

Our question today is: What is our basic overall objective when it comes to money? What is the one thing I am trying to accomplish with my money?

Tension:

My overall financial goal is to . . .

- Make all you can?
- Spend all you can?
- Save all you can?
- Give all I can?
- To be financially free to do whatever I want?

Tip: Financial freedom means extra. Extra usually results in a lack of discipline, so you need a compass to help you get to the right place with your extra.

Truth:

To understand the proper objective/goal for your personal finances, you need to know how God views your money/stuff.

Everything comes from you, and we have given you only what comes from your hand.

Application:

Our Only Objective: Honor God with everything!

Conclusion:

So, what's our objective? To honor God.

What are you supposed to do with your wealth? Honor God.

What's your point of reference? Where it's going.

Everything belongs to God, comes from God, and is distributed by God. So, honor God with everything.

This calls for surrender: A "yes" heart. A "thy will be done" attitude.

Have you ever done that? Have you ever surrendered your stuff, your wealth, your paycheck, and said, "It's yours; show me how to manage it"?

Next Steps:

- Memorize 1 Chronicles 29:14.
- Surrender All to God.
- Honor God with your finances.
