

The welcome verse for this week is Hebrews 10:23; “Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful.”

Glorifying God in My Job with Rose Marie Jackey

Genesis 37-50; Romans 8:28;
Philippians 4:13; Matthew 19:26

The Bottom Line: God will work all things for the good of those who love Him and are called in His purpose.

Introduction:

We are ending the series with a very special interview with Rose Marie Jackey, former CEO of Burberry and former President of Saks Fifth Avenue. We will sit down to discuss her experience with faith and working in the secular world.

Review:

Work is a gift from God, for God.

We give our whole selves to our work, working with excellence and diligence, because we are working unto the Lord and not to men (Colossians 3:23). Good enough is no longer good enough. God is worthy of our best work.

Work is about so much more than money. It's about making a difference in the lives of those we work with and having impact in our communities. We lead by example, love through hospitality, and live with compassion. We cannot be satisfied making a dollar when we were born to make a difference.

Truth:

Nothing is impossible with God.

Our plans are not often God's plans.

Keep a positive attitude.

Utilize all of your talents and live to your capacity.

Discipline and diligence are key for everything you do.

Maintain strategic vision.

A Short Study on Joseph (Genesis 37-50):

Application & Conclusion:

God will work all things for the good of those who love him and are called according to his purpose. Choose joy, remain diligent, stay humble, and seek God's presence in your life. You will see how He has kept you all this time.
