

8th Annual John J Murphy Scholarship

John Murphy was a supporter of Food Shippers of America both as a food manufacturer while at Borden Foods then as the Executive Director for 14 years after his retirement from Borden in 1995.

John's impact and contributions to the organization included:

- Ambassador for the food industry
- Facilitated the combining of the rail/3PL and motor carrier conference in 1997
- Instrumental in transforming the organization to become more interactive & collaborative by doubling the shipper/receiver participation
- Voice and visionary of the organization
- Friend and mentor to hundreds of food logistics professionals
- Most importantly he understood, progressed and protected the mission and values of the Food Shippers of America to be an educational resource that could be influential in driving change in the industry.
