

Identify and eliminate hazardous, counterfeit and recalled products on your marketplace with a fully automated solution

- Automatically enforce your Acceptable Use Policy
- Remove recalled and IP infringing products
- Access knowledge & guidance from compliance experts
- Approve or reject millions of products per day
- Unlock new cross-border opportunities through advanced multi-region compliance

Quickly scan millions of products across multiple regions via API

Analyze multiple data points such as an item's text, images, and meta-data

Identify illicit products based on your customized AUP criteria

Automatically eliminate high risk items with over 95% precision

EverC uses artificial intelligence and machine learning to offer the industry's first automated solution designed to identify counterfeits and illicit product listings. We work with the world's largest marketplaces to eliminate non-compliant products, protect brand integrity and enable new business opportunities.