Scope of Policy
These policies apply to the instruction of standard OneStream training materials for public training classes. These policies do not apply to customized OneStream training or private on-site training, both of which require a mutually signed Statement of Work outlining the specific training terms. OneStream reserves the right to change this policy at a future date.

Prerequisites and Advanced Preparation
All training participants must be a current OneStream customer or partner at the time of course registration in accordance with Section 1 of the Training Terms and Conditions (the “Terms”). OneStream may choose to cancel any training registration that does not meet the registration requirements in Section 1 of the Terms. In such event, a refund will be given for the training class amount; OneStream is not responsible for any additional costs accrued by the individual.

Attendance to advanced-level classes is conditional based on meeting the prerequisites for those classes.

We recommend viewing the Application Basics course located in OneStream Academy. This is a four-hour virtual overview introducing key OneStream concepts and providing background knowledge about OneStream.

Delivery
All OneStream classes are delivered in person (Group-Live); however, a Live Remote option (Group-Internet Based) is available for many, but not all classes. Classes may contain interactive materials, sample files, instructional slides and exercise guides. Laptops are provided at select training facilities, and you will be made aware of whether or not you need to supply your own laptop.
