

ESTATE COMMITMENT FORM

When directing an estate gift to the Bradley Impact Fund, please complete this form and return by email to gconger@bradleyimpactfund.org or by mail. This will establish a personal giving account or prepare your current account to receive the gift. If you do not submit this form to the Bradley Impact Fund or make other arrangements to specify the use of the gift, the fund will direct any gift received to the Partnership Fund.

SECTION A: ASSETS

Bequest To name the Bradley Impact Fund as a beneficiary in your will, please speak with your personal legal counsel to make the appropriate arrangements and draw up the legal documents. If desired, your attorney could personalize any of the following examples when structuring your will.

- 1) I give 25% of the residue of my estate to [Fund Name] of Bradley Impact Fund, EIN 45-4678325.
- 2) I give the sum of $500,000 to [Fund Name] of Bradley Impact Fund, EIN 45-4678325.
- 3) I give 1,000 shares of X Corporation stock to [Fund Name] of Bradley Impact Fund, EIN 45-4678325.

Beneficiary Designation A beneficiary designation gift is a simple way to make a gift to support the Bradley Impact Fund. You can designate us as a beneficiary of a retirement, investment or bank account or your life insurance policy. To make your gift, collect a new beneficiary designation form for each account. Complete the form, including Bradley Impact Fund, EIN 45-4678325 as the beneficiary, sign the form and mail it back to your broker, banker or agent.

Identify all grants as anonymous. OR Identify all grants by my fund's name.

OR Use my existing Bradley Impact Fund Personal Giving Account.

SECTION D: SETTING A TERM-LIMIT.

Choose one option from the items below as a means of closing your account. The Fund strongly encourages you to limit the life of your donor-advised fund to a term of twenty years or less.

- I would like the term of my donor-advised fund to end _____ years after my death.
- I would like the term of my donor-advised fund to end with the death of my last successor.

SECTION E: STATING YOUR DONOR INTENT

When setting up a donor-advised fund through a bequest, we strongly encourage you to describe your charitable principles, interests, and goals so that the Bradley Impact Fund may better preserve your donor intent. You may also wish to document the names or types of public charities that you may either wish to fund or may not wish to fund. These examples can serve as guidelines to those who are charged with administering your account (either your successor-advisor or the Bradley Impact Fund). You alone have the authority to make written changes to your donor intent during your lifetime. Your intent must fall within (or not contradict) the purpose and mission to the Bradley Impact Fund.

Attach additional sheets as necessary.

SECTION F: SUCCESSOR-ADVISORS

You may appoint trusted individuals as successor-advisors to the fund established by the bequest. If you name more than one successor, please indicate how the remainder assets will be held. If jointly, note that successors have equal authority. If separately, indicate how the fund will be split. A minimum of $10,000 is required to establish each split account. If you wish to appoint the Bradley Impact Fund as your advisor or have them distribute your assets directly to your choice of charities, see Section E. If you do not choose a successor, your account will terminate according to your term limit and be disbursed to your beneficiaries.

SECTION H: SIGNATURE

I have read the Bradley Impact Fund materials and understand the mission statement, grantmaking principles, and general rules and guidelines that apply to all Bradley Impact Fund grant disbursements. Additionally, I understand that if I do not designate successors or beneficiaries to this donor-advised fund, the remainder assets will be transferred to the Partnership Fund at the death of the last original account holder. I do hereby acknowledge and accept these conditions. I understand that any contribution, once accepted by the Bradley Impact Fund, represents an irrevocable charitable gift to the Bradley Impact Fund, and the Bradley Impact Fund has exclusive legal control over the assets contributed. I understand grants from the account may not benefit donors to the account, the account advisors or confer an impermissible private benefit, and can only be used for charitable purposes.
