FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

Q) How do we know that Jesus is God?

A) Unbelievers proclaim it

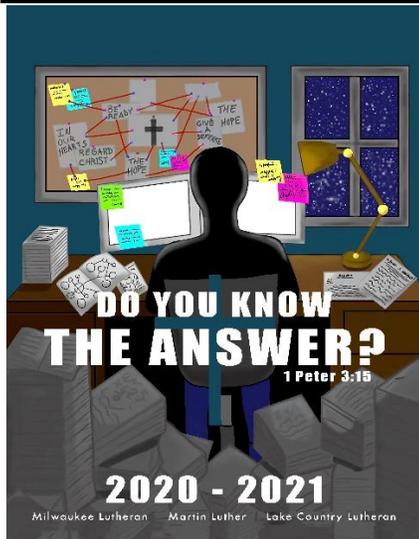

Our theme for the year focuses on the idea that we need to be prepared to answer the questions for the reason for the hope that we have. There are questions that non-Christians have of Christians in relation to our faith. Throughout the year we will focus on answers to these questions through a lens on the central figure to our faith – Jesus Christ.

Experience with the real Jesus never leaves an individual the same. These interactions produced a change. The sick were healed, the possessed were relieved, and the doubters began to believe. These face-to-face encounters were the cause of conversion – sometimes of those most adamantly against this new Christian faith (see Paul’s conversion in Acts 9). Previous unbelievers proclaimed who Christ was after witnessing Him.

When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe and said “Truly this was the Son of God!” (Matthew 25:54).

This man who was hired by his government to carry out an execution against a supposed challenger to the Roman empire witnessed first-hand the power of God. The events of Good Friday were enough to convince him – and the others who were also witnesses – of the real identity of Jesus Christ. They proclaimed that Jesus of Nazareth was the Son of God.

As we encounter Jesus today, we too experience His awesome power. Granted, this power is not as visually evident as it was that day. Yet, we still have the change to witness His power over this world – and the power within those who believe. That interaction never leaves us the same. It is always changing us. We are witnesses of that power. There will also come a day when all – believers and unbelievers – will proclaim who God is. When He returns all will recognize who He is and “at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father” (Philippians 2:10-11).

REMOTE PARENT-TEACHER CONFERENCES PARENT INSTRUCTIONS

We are moving our Fall Parent-Teacher Conferences to a completely virtual format through Microsoft TEAMS. This will allow needed contact while helping to keep both our families and faculty safe. If you have a student who is struggling with learning or you would like to check in with a teacher, our teachers will be available for virtual meetings during the following times:

- Thursday, October 15 – 5:00-7:30 pm
- Friday, October 16 – 7:30-9:30 am

You received a full list of links to individual teacher on Tuesday, October 13. There are separate links for the Thursday evening and Friday morning sessions for each teacher. It will be helpful for you to determine the teachers you wish to speak with ahead of time. You do not need to have a Microsoft Teams account to access the links or the meetings.

When you click on a link to join a meeting, you will automatically enter a waiting lobby for that teacher. They will admit you as soon as they are able. Teachers will try and keep the waiting room aware of their number in line through the chat box feature.

If these times do not work, if you would prefer to talk by phone, or if an individual conference will run longer than just a couple of minutes, we recommend you make arrangements with the teacher to schedule a conference for another time.
