FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . .

God sends a {chosen} sinner like me

Many individuals have the experiencing of being chosen. I can still remember picking teams at recess, friends selecting those that they were going to invite to some occasion, coaches selecting squads during tryouts, even bosses selecting an individual for a special duty or promotion. When you are the one chosen, a flood of dopamine enters your brain giving you a rush and a positive feeling. If you are not chosen, or are clearly one of the “last resort” choices, it is natural to be disappointed or crushed with the sense of being unwanted.

The people of God have an incredible assurance – that we have been chosen. In the Old Testament, God set apart the Israelites as “His people”. They were selected from all the other nations on earth to have a special agreement with the Creator – love God and continue to worship Him, and Him only, and they would be blessed.

For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for his treasured possession, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth. (Deuteronomy 7:6)

When Jesus Christ came, the covenant relationship with the Jews was enlarged to include anyone who believed in Him. At His death, the Kingdom was opened to all believers. This same arrangement still applies to us today. Those who believe and are baptized will be saved. But this understanding has little to do with us. If it were not for God first choosing us, this would still be impossible. God has chosen us – who are unworthy to be made holy through His sacrifice.

Listen, my beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? (James 2:5)

It always feels good to be chosen. We experience it here on earth in various functions. Yet the selection from Jesus Christ, making us His chosen people, not only causes a short term high, but rather an eternal effect. God didn’t have to choose us – we certainly don’t deserve it. Yet God continually claims us as His own children – those whom he loves with an eternal love. We sometimes forget that we have been specially selected. It is easy to wallow in our own challenges. May we continually be reminded that God has chosen us, specifically and intentionally, for His purposes – and for all the eternal reward that accompanies it.

OFFICE of SCHOOL CULTURE/Dean of Students

Greetings,

A reminder that we will only have school on Monday the 22nd and Tuesday the 23rd this upcoming week. I certainly want to wish all of you a Happy Thanksgiving! God is so good to all of us!

Every month we will have Students of the Month selected by each department at MLHS. Some of the comments that were made regarding the following students were: pleasure to have in class, positive attitude, kind, hard worker, has shown great maturity, etc. Here are the October Students of the Month:

- Ajane Olusanya (Spanish)
- Mattie Ellis (P.E)
- Franklin Cole (Social Studies)
- Nickia Smith (Math)
- Nivea Webb (Tech Ed)
- Naviah Jones (English)
- Brooklyn May (Science)
- Craig Robertson (Art)
- Claire Cronce (Business)
- Will Holmes (Resource)
- Mikael Jones (Religion)
- Justin McDaniel (Music)

I spoke in chapel earlier this week regarding a couple of our school polices. First is that we do not allow Door Dash or any other outside deliveries to school. Second is that we will continue to have a no phone policy throughout the school day. If a phone is out the student must give it to a staff member when asked. Third is that we allow hooded sweatshirts, but we do not allow students to have their hoods up. If you have any questions about policies/procedures, please contact me at 414-461-6000X205 or jkalkopf@milwaukeeelutheran.org

The verse of encouragement I would like to leave with you is from 1 Chronicles 29:13 - "Now, our God, we give you thanks, and praise your glorious name." Have a great weekend!

God's Blessings,
Mr. Joe Kalkopf
