FROM THE PRINCIPAL . . . Mr. Adam Kirsch

Here I Am, Lord

And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me." (Isaiah 6:8)

This verse serves as our theme focus for the 2021-2022 school year. The Lord is calling the prophet Isaiah to be his messenger to the people. Rather than being a simple question and response however, there are two great aspects to this verse.

The first is the clarity of who is speaking.

Research has shown that newborn babies respond immediately to the sound of their mother's voice. The time spent in the womb makes her voice recognizable and comforting to a child thrust into an unfamiliar world.

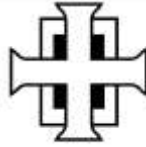

As Isaiah hears these words of the Lord, it is clear that there is a recognition of who is speaking to him. Identifying the source helps Isaiah realize that this is more of a rhetorical question. The Lord knows who He is calling. It is directed squarely at Isaiah, who He has equipped and is pressing him to service.

The second great aspect is that this is a call to action.

When I was a child, summers meant escaping the house and venturing out into the neighborhood and surrounding areas. Growing up in a rural community meant that homes were spread out, friends were harder to find, and the distance to find something to occupy our time increased. We would often be far away from home, but one thing always brought us back to the house – the sound of my mom's voice. Like the other mothers, she would stand on the front porch and yell out that it was time to come home. We were able to distinguish her voice from the other sounds in the world and knew that it was in our best interest to go now.

Isaiah, though initially reluctant to respond to God's command, recognizes that as a forgiven Child of God, he has what he needs to be a useful instrument. He sees that it is in his best interest to respond in a positive way – not out of fear or obligation, but because of the promise of good things that await a faithful messenger of God. He is blessing Isaiah, and in the same way, calls and blesses us.

As the people of God, He is speaking these same words to us. In a world often filled with confusion and mixed messages, He is calling His followers to be His clear witnesses. Who will share His story? Who will speak of the immeasurable love of God? Who will be His representative as they serve the community? We are called by a voice that is recognizable and comforting. We are called by the one in whom we live and move and have our being. We are being called to action in an urgent way. We are called to serve as His instrument of voice, hands, and feet to this world. We are called, recognizing that our Lord goes with us. Despite our reluctance or feelings of unworthiness, we are called to boldly respond to his call with our hearts and our life. How will you answer?

FROM THE OFFICE OF STUDENT LIFE

Greetings,

We are getting closer and closer to the beginning of the 2021-2022 school year! It is exciting to know that in the very near future students will be able to experience all the great educational opportunities and activities that MLHS has to offer. Most importantly, though, it is exciting to know that all of us as a Milwaukee Lutheran family will have the opportunity to hear about the great things our Lord and Savior has done for us each and every day.

As Dean of Culture, I am one of the go-to guys with questions regarding policies and procedures. I do not want to overwhelm you with information now as students will be hearing about many of these things during their orientation. One of the big things that I do want you to be aware of is our dress code. Below you will find what is stated in the Student Handbook regarding dress code. If you have any questions at all regarding that document or any other policies/procedures, please do not hesitate to contact me at jkalkopf@milwaukeeelutheran.org or 414-461-6000x205. I pray that you and your family enjoy the rest of your summer!

God's Blessings,
Mr. Joe Kalkopf
MLHS Dean of Culture.

Milwaukee Lutheran has established a direction and guidelines for dress that enable us to be an institution that teaches the principles of God and ensures a suitable environment for instruction and learning. While principles that God has established in Scripture apply consistently through time, apparel style changes. Therefore, Milwaukee Lutheran's dress code is reviewed as necessary.

The dress code applies during the hours of 7:00 am to 5:00 pm and is strongly recommended for any activity in which students represent Milwaukee Lutheran to the community (including field trips, extra-curricular teams or groups).

Every student's appearance and clothing should be neat, clean, appropriate for a school setting, and reflect Christian modesty. Any styles, fads, apparel, accessories, or look that do not reflect those standards, or that is deemed to be disruptive to the education process, will be considered inappropriate. Final decisions about acceptability are made by the Administration.

12.1 DRESS CODE ENFORCEMENT

Students in violation of the dress code will be sent to the attendance office and suspended from classes until they meet the guidelines by correcting the issue:

OUTSTANDING! . . .
 The Maintenance Department has accomplished a tremendous amount of work during the summer – painting, polishing, and putting the building in order for the new school year.

THANKS FOR ALL YOUR HARD WORK!

ONE LAST THOUGHT

Our faculty and staff look forward to working with you and thank God for the opportunity you have given us to serve your student. We believe that together we will develop Christian young men and women of whom we can be proud. Our prayer is that God will bless our efforts in 2021-2022 as you join us in making this another remarkable and memorable year.
