Family Groups

What is advisory Family Groups?

It's student led discussions on topics in a small, close community to build relationships with one another as Christ's one big FAMILY.

- ★ It is getting to know different kids from different grade levels in a small, closer setting
- ★ Talking about topics you don't normally get to discuss in an academic class
- ★ It is developing student leaders to become role models for underclassmen
- ★ Being there for one another as Christ is for us

MILWAUKEE LUTHERAN
HIGH SCHOOL

Why are Family Groups Important?

- ★ Family groups allow students to try to get outside of their comfort zone and meet students from all grade levels
- ★ Students can create close relationships with their family group leaders and teachers
- ★ Students are able to talk about, discuss, and ask questions about life
- ★ Students & teachers help keep each other accountable for their actions & choices in life
