

1 Minute Sales Tip:

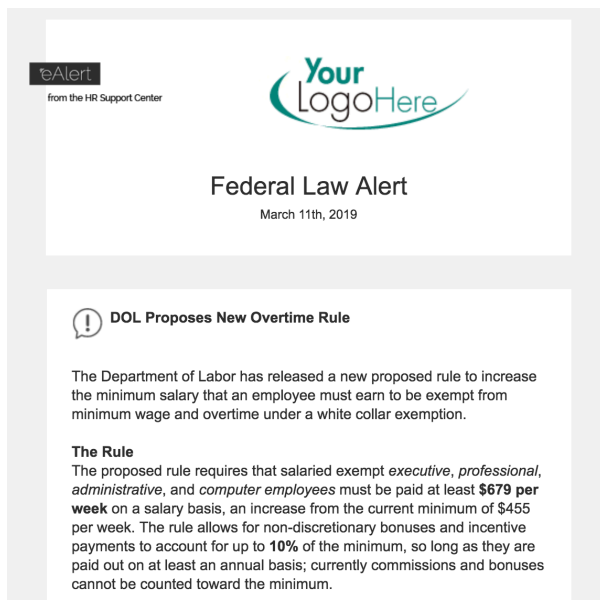

Keep clients up-to-date on the latest federal and state employment law changes affecting their business.

With eAlerts from the HR Support Center, your clients on all levels of service can receive automatic emails to help them understand new federal and state legal changes that apply to where they do business.

Employers can customize which alerts they're receiving at any time, and can set them up for every state they operate in.

eAlerts make HR compliance easier for your clients by informing them about important employment law changes.

Quick tip: Employers can manage their subscriptions by going to:

"My Account" on the HR Support Center task bar and selecting: "Subscriptions."
