

1 Minute Sales Tip:

Help your clients take a large project off of their plates – job descriptions.

Creating and updating job descriptions is often a daunting task for employers. And many job description services can cost more than $125/hour. As a result, this project frequently falls to the bottom of employers' lists, exposing them to compliance risks.

By signing up for HR On-Demand, your clients will get access to custom job description services in addition to live consulting with our team of certified HR Pros. At no additional cost, they can:

- » Download job description templates
- » Create unlimited job descriptions
- » Have an HR Advisor review their current job descriptions for compliance

Help your clients quickly and easily get their job description projects completed when you sign them up for HR On-Demand.
