GET PAYROLL DONE RIGHT AND REDUCE ERRORS

RABco Payroll Suite

Even today, many organizations still rely on manual time tracking and accounting. Or they are using separate, nonintegrated accounting systems for time tracking and payroll. Getting payroll wrong can cost you in more ways than you thought. Using these routes can greatly increase the chance for costly errors of all sorts, from missing pay to penalties for inaccurate tax payments.

WITH OUR PAYROLL SOLUTIONS, YOU CAN:

- Empower managers to manage by exception, reviewing and approving employee time daily, so that pay accurately reflects employee time
- Proactively identify issues and collaborate with email alerts and robust workflows that flag issues to avoid inevitable payroll problems
- Save time for managers and supervisors, so that they can focus more on revenue-generating activities, such as customer service or quality care

ANALYZE AND REDUCE UNNECESSARY OVERTIME

RABco Time and Labor Management Suite

When a company is not exactly sure of the total hours an employee has worked, the typical response is to pay for more overtime than is anticipated, which can have several causes, from being short-staffed and mismanaging absences to a company culture that encourages overtime. The result is that you pay for more overtime than is necessary with no way of knowing you have it right.

The max amount of weekly overtime before it is less expensive to hire a full-time employee 5.7%

he total cost of overtime as a percentage, in a payroll cycle 16X

Idle time is up to 16 times more expensive than overtime caused by overstaffing

WITH OUR TIME AND LABOR MANAGEMENT AND ADVANCED SCHEDULING SYSTEM SOLUTIONS, YOU CAN:

- More accurately align staffing and scheduling with actual demand
- Gain real-time insights into your time recording and employee hours
- Create accurate schedules that align staffing requirements with budget and demand
- Automatically sort through employees based on predefined criteria to assign the right person to each position

HIRE, ENGAGE, AND RETAIN BEST-FIT EMPLOYEES

RABco Human Resources Suite

Companies need employees who are committed to delivering exceptional service that drives loyalty and profits. But finding great associates isn't easy and keeping them is even more difficult. This revolving-door environment can have a negative impact on customer engagement, workforce morale, and ultimately your bottom line. Fortunately, there are steps you can take to address these talent challenges. Let's take a look at why companies are turning to automated workforce solutions to help them hire, engage, and retain best-fit associates.
