Let's hear it from our Libryo Collaborators:

“Libryo Collaborate has allowed me to work flexibly around my life. I select the work I want to complete based on my capacity and my interest in certain areas of the law. I relish the ever changing and unpredictable nature of the work and the opportunity for progression. The ERM Libryo team is incredibly supportive and responsive, and I am comforted in the fact that they are always there to answer any queries.”

MEGAN SUMNER | POSTGRADUATE LLM LPC, NOTTINGHAM LAW SCHOOL

“Working with Libryo Collaborate has been an amazing experience that I'd never thought to gain as a student. The work has equipped me with transferable skills that will surely be useful for my legal career in the future. Finally, I honed the ability to understand the law from multiple jurisdictions and how they affect the business needs of various clients throughout my work as a Libryo Collaborator.”

YI KANG CHOO | MASTERS IN CORPORATE LAW, UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

“Libryo offers a truly unique and exciting line of legal work. I love the international aspect and the variety of laws and legal work they provide on the platform. I had the opportunity to work with legislation from Africa, Europe and the Americas. I also appreciate the environmental and operational aspects of Libryo.”

CAROLINA SOUZA | LAWYER, BRAZIL

“Libryo Collaborate provides me with the opportunity to apply my practical experience to highlight compliance obligations. This simplifies identifying applicable legal obligations and assists companies in assessing compliance against those responsibilities. Working with Libryo Collaborate is flexible, interesting, an opportunity to grow and adds real value on an operational level.”

HANLIE HATTINGH | SHERQ SPECIALIST, SOUTH AFRICA
