Division 5A—Flexibility provisions relating to employers previously entitled to jobkeeper payment

789GJA Jobkeeper enabling stand down—employer previously entitled to jobkeeper payment for employee

(1) If:

- (a) after the commencement of this section, an employer of an employee gave the employee a direction (the jobkeeper enabling stand down direction) to:
 - (i) not work on a day or days on which the employee would usually work; or
 - (ii) work for a lesser period than the period which the employee would ordinarily work on a particular day or days; or

- (iii) work a reduced number of hours (compared with the employee's ordinary hours of work);
during a period (the jobkeeper enabling stand down period);
and
- (b) the jobkeeper enabling stand down direction does not require the employee to work a reduced number of hours (compared with the employee's ordinary hours of work) that is less than:
 - (i) if the employee does not belong to a class of employees specified in regulations made for the purposes of subparagraph (ii)—60% of the employee's ordinary hours of work as at the start of 1 March 2020; or
 - (ii) if the employee belongs to a class of employees specified in the regulations—60% of the number of ordinary hours of work ascertained in accordance with the regulations for that class; and
- (c) the jobkeeper enabling stand down direction does not require the employee to work less than 2 hours in a day; and
- (d) the employee cannot be usefully employed for the employee's normal days or hours during the jobkeeper enabling stand down period because of changes to business attributable to:
 - (i) the COVID-19 pandemic; or
 - (ii) government initiatives to slow the transmission of COVID-19; and
- (e) the implementation of the jobkeeper enabling stand down direction is safe, having regard to (without limitation) the nature and spread of COVID-19; and
- (f) the employer is not entitled to one or more jobkeeper payments for the employee:
 - (i) for a period that consists of or includes the jobkeeper enabling stand down period; or
 - (ii) for periods that, when considered together, consist of or include the jobkeeper enabling stand down period; and
- (g) the jobkeeper enabling stand down period begins on or after 28 September 2020; and
- (h) the employer was entitled to a jobkeeper payment for the employee for a fortnight that ended before 28 September 2020; and

- (i) at the time when the direction was given, the employer held a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to that time; the jobkeeper enabling stand down direction is authorised by this section.
- (2) If the jobkeeper enabling stand down direction applies to the employee, then, during the jobkeeper enabling stand down period, the employer is still required to comply with:
- (a) section 323 (method and frequency of payment of wages); and
 - (b) the hourly rate of pay guarantee (see section 789GDB);
- but is not otherwise required to make payments to the employee in respect of the jobkeeper enabling stand down period.
- (3) The jobkeeper enabling stand down direction does not apply to the employee during a period when the employee:
- (a) is taking paid or unpaid leave that is authorised by the employer; or
 - (b) is otherwise authorised to be absent from the employee's employment.
- Note: An employee may take paid or unpaid leave (for example, annual leave) during all or part of a period during which the jobkeeper enabling stand down direction would otherwise apply to the employee.
- (4) This section has effect despite a designated employment provision.

789GJB Duties of work—employer previously entitled to jobkeeper payment for employee

- (1) If:
- (a) after the commencement of this section, an employer of an employee directed the employee to perform any duties during a period (the relevant period) that are within the employee's skill and competency; and
 - (b) those duties are safe, having regard to (without limitation) the nature and spread of COVID-19; and
 - (c) in a case where the employee was required to have a licence or qualification in order to perform those duties—the employee had the licence or qualification; and

- (d) those duties are reasonably within the scope of the employer's business operations; and
 - (e) the employer is not entitled to one or more jobkeeper payments for the employee:
 - (i) for a period that consists of or includes the relevant period; or
 - (ii) for periods that, when considered together, consist of or include the relevant period; and
 - (f) the relevant period begins on or after 28 September 2020; and
 - (g) the employer was entitled to a jobkeeper payment for the employee for a fortnight that ended before 28 September 2020; and
 - (h) at the time when the direction was given, the employer held a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to that time;
- the direction is authorised by this section.

- (2) This section has effect despite a designated employment provision.

789GJC Location of work—employer previously entitled to jobkeeper payment for employee

- (1) If:
- (a) after the commencement of this section, an employer of an employee directed the employee to perform duties during a period (the relevant period) at a place that is different from the employee's normal place of work, including the employee's home; and
 - (b) the place is suitable for the employee's duties; and
 - (c) if the place is not the employee's home—the place does not require the employee to travel a distance that is unreasonable in all the circumstances, including the circumstances surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic; and
 - (d) the performance of the employee's duties at the place is:
 - (i) safe, having regard to (without limitation) the nature and spread of COVID-19; and
 - (ii) reasonably within the scope of the employer's business operations; and

- (e) the employer is not entitled to one or more jobkeeper payments for the employee:
 - (i) for a period that consists of or includes the relevant period; or
 - (ii) for periods that, when considered together, consist of or include the relevant period; and
 - (f) the relevant period begins on or after 28 September 2020; and
 - (g) the employer was entitled to a jobkeeper payment for the employee for a fortnight that ended before 28 September 2020; and
 - (h) at the time when the direction was given, the employer held a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to that time;
- the direction is authorised by this section.

- (2) This section has effect despite a designated employment provision.

789GJD Days of work etc.—employer previously entitled to jobkeeper payment for employee

- (1) If:
 - (a) an employer of an employee was entitled to a jobkeeper payment for the employee for a fortnight that ended before 28 September 2020; and
 - (b) the employer gives the employee a request to make an agreement with the employer under subsection (2); and
 - (c) if the request is made on or after 28 September 2020—the employer is not entitled to one or more jobkeeper payments for the employee; and
 - (d) if the request is made before 28 September 2020—the employer will not be entitled to a jobkeeper payment for the employee for the fortnight beginning on 28 September 2020; and
 - (e) at the time when the request was given, the employer held a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to that time;the employee:
 - (f) must consider the request; and

- (g) must not unreasonably refuse the request.
- (2) If:
- (a) after the commencement of this section, an employer and an employee of the employer agree in writing to the employee performing duties during a period (the relevant period):
 - (i) on different days; or
 - (ii) at different times;compared with the employee's ordinary days or times of work; and
 - (b) the performance of the employee's duties on those days or at those times is:
 - (i) safe, having regard to (without limitation) the nature and spread of COVID-19; and
 - (ii) reasonably within the scope of the employer's business operations; and
 - (c) the agreement does not have the effect of reducing the employee's number of hours of work (compared with the employee's ordinary hours of work); and
 - (d) the agreement does not have the effect of requiring the employee to work less than 2 hours in a day; and
 - (e) the employer is not entitled to one or more jobkeeper payments for the employee:
 - (i) for a period that consists of or includes the relevant period; or
 - (ii) for periods that, when considered together, consist of or include the relevant period; and
 - (f) the relevant period begins on or after 28 September 2020; and
 - (g) the employer was entitled to a jobkeeper payment for the employee for a fortnight that ended before 28 September 2020; and
 - (h) at the time when the agreement was made, the employer held a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to that time;
- the agreement is authorised by this section.
- (3) This section has effect despite a designated employment provision.

789GJE Termination of direction if employer ceases to satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test

Test time

- (1) For the purposes of this section, test time means:
- (a) the start of 28 October 2020; or
 - (b) the start of 28 February 2021.

Termination of direction

- (2) If:
- (a) an employer of an employee gave the employee a jobkeeper enabling direction under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC; and
 - (b) the direction applies to the employee at a test time; and
 - (c) at the test time, the employer did not hold a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to that time;
- the direction ceases to have effect immediately after the test time.

Note 1: Under section 789GCC, the designated quarter applicable to the start of 28 October 2020 is the quarter ending on 30 September 2020.

Note 2: Under section 789GCC, the designated quarter applicable to the start of 28 February 2021 is the quarter ending on 31 December 2020.

Notification of termination of direction

- (3) If:
- (a) an employer of an employee gave the employee a jobkeeper enabling direction under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC; and
 - (b) the direction will cease to have effect immediately after a test time;
- then, before the test time, the employer must give the employee a written notice that explains:
- (c) that the direction will cease to have effect; and
 - (d) when the direction will cease to have effect.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1) unless subsection (4) applies.

- (4) Section 539 (civil remedy) does not apply to a contravention by an employer of subsection (3) of this section unless the employer has previously contravened that subsection on one or more occasions.

Notification of continuation of direction

- (5) If:
- (a) an employer of an employee gave the employee a jobkeeper enabling direction under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC; and
 - (b) the direction will not cease to have effect immediately after a test time;

then, before the test time, the employer must give the employee a written notice that explains that the direction will not cease to have effect immediately after the test time.

Note 1: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1) unless subsection (6) applies.

Note 2: Section 789GP deals with the circumstances in which a jobkeeper enabling direction ceases to have effect (for example, if the direction is withdrawn, revoked or replaced by the employer or if the direction is terminated under this section).

- (6) Section 539 (civil remedy) does not apply to a contravention by an employer of subsection (5) of this section unless the employer has previously contravened that subsection on one or more occasions.

789GJF Termination of agreement if employer ceases to satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test

Test time

- (1) For the purposes of this section, test time means:
- (a) the start of 28 October 2020; or
 - (b) the start of 28 February 2021.

Termination of agreement

- (2) If:
- (a) an employer of an employee and the employee have made an agreement under subsection 789GJD(2); and
 - (b) the agreement is in force at a test time; and

- (c) at the test time, the employer did not hold a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to that time;

the agreement ceases to have effect immediately after the test time.

Note 1: Under section 789GCC, the designated quarter applicable to the start of 28 October 2020 is the quarter ending on 30 September 2020.

Note 2: Under section 789GCC, the designated quarter applicable to the start of 28 February 2021 is the quarter ending on 31 December 2020.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not, by implication, prevent an agreement from being terminated otherwise than under that subsection.

Notification of termination of agreement

- (4) If:

- (a) an employer of an employee and the employee have made an agreement under subsection 789GJD(2); and

- (b) the agreement will cease to have effect immediately after a test time;

then, before the test time, the employer must give the employee a written notice that explains:

- (c) that the agreement will cease to have effect; and

- (d) when the agreement will cease to have effect.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1) unless subsection (5) applies.

- (5) Section 539 (civil remedy) does not apply to a contravention by an employer of subsection (4) of this section unless the employer has previously contravened that subsection on one or more occasions.

Notification of continuation of agreement

- (6) If:

- (a) an employer of an employee and the employee have made an agreement under subsection 789GJD(2); and

- (b) the agreement will not cease to have effect immediately after a test time;

then, before the test time, the employer must give the employee a written notice that explains that the agreement will not cease to have effect immediately after the test time.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1) unless subsection (7) applies.

(7) Section 539 (civil remedy) does not apply to a contravention by an employer of subsection (6) of this section unless the employer has previously contravened that subsection on one or more occasions.

23 Section 789GK (note)

Omit “Note”, substitute “Note 1”.

24 At the end of section 789GK

Add:

Note 2: If directions relating to reduction of hours are given by an employer to the employees in a particular category, the directions may be unreasonable if the directions have an unfair effect on some employees in that category when compared with other employees in that category who are also subject to those directions.

25 Subsection 789GL(1)

After “789GE”, insert “or 789GJB”.

26 Subsection 789GL(1)

After “789GF”, insert “or 789GJC”.

26A Section 789GM (at the end of the heading)

Add “—employer currently entitled to jobkeeper payment for employee”.

27 Subsection 789GM(1)

After “of the employer”, insert “under section 789GDC, 789GE or 789GF”.

28 At the end of subsection 789GM(1)

Add:

Note: An employee organisation may be a representative of the employee.

29 After section 789GM

Insert:

789GMA Consultation—employer previously entitled to jobkeeper payment for employee

- (1) A jobkeeper enabling direction given by an employer to an employee of the employer under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC does not apply to the employee unless:
 - (a) the employer gave the employee written notice of the employer's intention to give the direction; and
 - (b) the employer did so:
 - (i) at least 7 days before the direction was given; or
 - (ii) if the employee genuinely agreed to a lesser notice period—during that lesser notice period; and
 - (c) during the 7-day period ending when the direction is given, the employer complied with subsections (4) to (8) in relation to the direction.
- (2) The regulations may require that a notice under paragraph (1)(a) must be in a prescribed form.

Consultation

- (3) During the 7-day period ending when a jobkeeper enabling direction is given by an employer to an employee of the employer under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC, the employee may appoint a representative for the purposes of consultation in relation to the direction.

Note: An employee organisation may be a representative of the employee.

- (4) If, during the 7-day period ending when a jobkeeper enabling direction is given by an employer to an employee of the employer under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC:
 - (a) the employee appoints a representative for the purposes of consultation in relation to the direction; and
 - (b) the employee advises the employer of the identity of the representative;the employer must recognise the representative.
- (5) During the 7-day period ending when a jobkeeper enabling direction is given by an employer to an employee of the employer under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC, the employer must consult with the employee or the employee's representative (if any).

- (6) For the purposes of the consultation, the employer must:
- (a) provide to the employee or the employee's representative (if any) information about the proposed direction, which may, for example, include any of the following:
 - (i) information about the nature of the direction;
 - (ii) information about when the direction is to take effect;
 - (iii) information about the expected effects of the direction on the employee; and
 - (b) invite the employee or the employee's representative (if any) to give their views about the impact of the proposed direction on the employee (for example, any impact in relation to the employee's family or caring responsibilities).
- (7) However, the employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the employee.
- (8) The employer must:
- (a) give prompt and genuine consideration to any views given under paragraph (6)(b); and
 - (b) do so within the 7-day period ending when the direction is given.
- (9) If:
- (a) a jobkeeper enabling direction is given by an employer to an employee of the employer under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC; and
 - (b) the employer takes action under subsection (4), (5), (6) or (8) in relation to the direction before the start of the 7-day period ending when the direction is given;
- then:
- (c) the action is as valid and effective as if it had been done during the 7-day period; and
 - (d) if the employee takes action under subsection (3) in relation to the direction before the start of the 7-day period—the action is as valid and effective as if it had been done during the 7-day period.

- (10) Subsections (1) to (8) do not apply to a jobkeeper enabling direction (the relevant direction) given by an employer to an employee of the employer under a particular section of this Part if:
- (a) the employer previously complied with paragraphs (1)(a), (b) and (c) and subsections (4) to (8) in relation to a proposal to give the employee another direction under that section; and
 - (b) in the course of consulting the employee (or a representative of the employee) about the proposal, the employee (or the representative of the employee) expressed views to the employer; and
 - (c) the employer considered those views in deciding to give the relevant direction.
- (11) An employer must keep a written record of a consultation:
- (a) with an employee of the employer; or
 - (b) with a representative of an employee of the employer;
- that is covered by paragraph (1)(c).

29A At the end of subsection 789GP(1)

Add:

Note: A jobkeeper enabling direction given by an employer to an employee of the employer under section 789GDC, 789GE or 789GF is contingent on the employer being entitled to jobkeeper payment for the employee. This means that if that entitlement ceases, the jobkeeper enabling direction will cease to have effect.

789GXB 10% decline in turnover test—prohibited conduct

- (1) An employer must not purport to give a jobkeeper enabling direction under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC if, at the time when the direction was given:
 - (a) the employer did not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test for the designated quarter applicable to that time; and
 - (b) the employer knew that, or was reckless as to whether, the employer did not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test for the designated quarter applicable to that time.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

- (2) An employer must not purport to give a request under subsection 789GJD(1) if, at the time when the request was given:
 - (a) the employer did not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test for the designated quarter applicable to that time; and

- (b) the employer knew that, or was reckless as to whether, the employer did not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test for the designated quarter applicable to that time.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

- (3) An employer must not give information to an eligible financial service provider if:
 - (a) the information is given in connection with the issue of a 10% decline in turnover certificate that covers the employer for the designated quarter applicable to a particular time; and
 - (b) the information:
 - (i) is false or misleading; or
 - (ii) omits any matter or thing without which the information is misleading; and
 - (c) the employer knows that the information:
 - (i) is false or misleading; or
 - (ii) omits any matter or thing without which the information is misleading.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

789GXC False statutory declaration

- (1) A person must not make a false statement in a statutory declaration covered by subsection 789GCD(3) if the person knows that the statement is false.

Note: This subsection is a civil remedy provision (see Part 4-1).

- (2) The following laws:
 - (a) a law of the Commonwealth, other than:
 - (i) subsection (1) of this section; or
 - (ii) the remaining provisions of this Act so far as they relate to subsection (1) of this section;
 - (b) a law of a State or Territory;do not apply to making a false statement in a statutory declaration covered by subsection 789GCD(3).

789GXD Federal Court may terminate a jobkeeper enabling direction if employer does not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test

If:

- (a) a jobkeeper enabling direction given by an employer to an employee of the employer under section 789GJA, 789GJB or 789GJC is in force at a particular time; and
- (b) the Federal Court is satisfied that the employer did not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test for the designated quarter applicable to that time;

the Federal Court may, on application made by:

- (c) the employee; or
- (d) an employee organisation; or
- (e) an inspector;

make either or both of the following orders:

- (f) an order terminating the direction;
- (g) any other order that the court considers appropriate.

789GXE Federal Court may terminate a subsection 789GJD(2) agreement if employer does not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test

If:

- (a) an agreement made by an employer and an employee of the employer under subsection 789GJD(2) is in force at a particular time; and
- (b) the Federal Court is satisfied that the employer did not satisfy the 10% decline in turnover test for the designated quarter applicable to that time;

the Federal Court may, on application made by:

- (c) the employee; or
- (d) an employee organisation; or
- (e) an inspector;

make either or both of the following orders:

- (f) an order terminating the agreement;
- (g) any other order that the court considers appropriate.
