

MARITAL MONEY CONVERSATION ICEBREAKERS

A close-up photograph of a bride's hands holding a bouquet of white flowers. The bride is wearing a diamond ring on her left hand. The bouquet is wrapped in white paper and has green stems visible at the bottom. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey.

To avoid relationship stress, plan a date night and review the conversation prompts below.

1. How did your parents discuss finances?
2. Were your parents conservative or generous with money?
3. Were your parents honest with each other about finances?
4. What is the maximum amount of money you feel comfortable with me spending without reviewing as a couple?
5. What are your expectations around our individual financial roles?
6. What are the best and worst aspects of money?
7. Would you rather invest in material items or experiences?
8. What are your thoughts around helping family financially?
