

Personal Property Inventory

If you have to file an insurance claim for stolen, damaged or destroyed property, it's always helpful to have a document describing your belongings. Make sure to have multiple copies in many different safe locations.

Bonus:

- Include model, serial numbers in the description
- Take photographs or videos of your possessions
- Have valuable items appraised

Living Room Items	Description	Date Purchased	Price Paid
Rugs
Curtains
Sofa
Chairs
Tables
Technology
Art
Musical Instruments
Collectibles
Miscellaneous

Personal Property Inventory, cont'd

Dining Room Items	Description	Date Purchased	Price Paid
Rugs
Curtains
Buffet/China Cabinet
Chairs
Dining Table
China/Crystal
Art
Miscellaneous

Personal Property Inventory, cont'd

Bedroom Items	Description	Date Purchased	Price Paid
Rugs/Curtains
Bed (frame, mattress, box spring)
Chairs/Tables
Dressers
Firearms
Art
Technology
Clothing/jewelry, furs
Miscellaneous

Personal Property Inventory, cont'd

Office Items	Description	Date Purchased	Price Paid
Desk
Rugs
Curtains
Sofa
Chairs
Tables
Technology
Art
Bookcases/books
Miscellaneous

Personal Property Inventory, cont'd

Kitchen Items

Description

Date Purchased

Price Paid

Fridge/Freezer

Chairs

Tables

Stove/Oven

Small Appliances

Pots, pans, dishes, etc.

Dish washer

Miscellaneous

Personal Property Inventory, cont'd

Garage Items	Description	Date Purchased	Price Paid
Furnace
Hot water tank
AC Unit
Workbench
Lawnmower/snowblower
Lawn tools
Carpentry tools
Boats/trailers
Sports equipment
Miscellaneous

Personal Property Inventory, cont'd

Outdoor Items	Description	Date Purchased	Price Paid
Tables
Chairs/lounges
Umbrellas
Grill
Planters
Pool equipment
Bikes
Miscellaneous

Get Social With Us!

Follow us on our social media platforms for exclusive news from our CEO, Kim Curtis, and the Wealth Legacy Institute team.

