In today's Gospel, Jesus uses one of his favorite methods of explaining God's relationships with his sons and daughters - a parable. Each of you are a son or daughter of our Heavenly Father, and in this story Jesus explains that all are invited, but few accept God's invitation to his eternal banquet.

What do you think he means by eternal banquet? If you answered heaven you are correct! God wants all of us to be with him in heaven! But how do we do that?
