

U.S. Department of Labor Safe + Sound Week is August 10-16

Implementing a safety and health program is one of the most effective ways to reduce injuries and illnesses. Effective programs can increase worker satisfaction, improve productivity, and reduce the costs associated with workplace injuries. OSHA's annual Safe + Sound year-round campaign encourages workplaces to develop safety and health programs and offers employers resources, tools, and ideas to promote safety.

Participating in Safe + Sound Week is easy, organizations of any size or any industry interested in raising safety awareness can participate. This year's event runs from August 10-16, 2020, and registration for the event is available as of July 6, 2020. Start by visiting <https://www.osha.gov/safeandsound/> for more information about this year's virtual event designed to provide resources to help plan and promote safety.
