finding care.

Employees have access to the world's leading network for finding and managing care for children, adults, pets, distance learning, the home, and more.

Search

Easily browse local caregivers and send messages to top candidates.

Post a job

Employees can post jobs in minutes describing their care needs.

Manage care

Set up interviews, access background check options, and pay directly through Care.com.

Hire safely

Access the Care.com Safety Center for resources and hiring best practices at care.com/safety.

Care share

Create a profile and connect with other families to form a nanny share or learning pod. This has been particularly helpful during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Employees can use Care.com to find:

- Nannies and babysitters
- Senior caregivers
- Tutors
- Distance learning facilitators
- Nanny shares and learning pods
- Pet sitters and groomers
- Errand runners
- Housekeepers
- Summer or vacation camps
- Special needs caregivers
- Transportation assistance
- And more

CareCheck

Caregivers must pass an annual background check, known as CareCheck in order to participate on the platform.

Meet the caregiver

Caregiver bios help employees learn more about the caregivers on Care.com.

Experience

Employees can search for caregivers with experience and skills that meet their requirements.

Reviews

Read reviews from other families who have hired a caregiver in the past.
