

Creating the Perfect Blend

(Decisions, Decisions)

Got content? Wondering if a blended approach will work for that content? First:

- ▶ Determine what needs to be taught
- ▶ Determine the associated objectives for each topic
- ▶ Use this decision tree to figure out what might be taught online

The Perfect Blend

Stepping through this process for each learning element will guide the design of a perfectly blended learning strategy that leverages the value of virtual classes, face to face classes, and independent work.
