Let's Talk Luxe Design

Lighting has evolved to be an intangible medium that enhances and enlivens spaces, evokes emotions and creates unique experiences.

In this issue, our exploration of luxe lighting design features conversations around project installations, product design, professional journeys, trends, the critical role of collaborative partnerships in the lighting community, designing around new technology and more. We thank our contributors—leading lighting designers, product designers and manufacturers—for sharing their perspectives and expertise with us.

Join the conversation on our blog and at Javits Center, New York this October 25-29. Registration opens June 7.

IN FOCUS: CONVERSATIONS ON ILLUMINATION

Luxe Viewpoints from HLB Lighting

Has the luxe design concept evolved from aspirational to attainable? How do lighting designers balance the craving for luxury with the need for sustainability? In what ways does technology shape lighting design? HLB Lighting Design's Barbara Horton and Lee Brandt unpack these and other questions as they walk us through some of their most memorable installations.
