

Making a Difference One Breath at a Time.

Laura Locker

Human Resources Director

Laura Locker is an experienced Human Resources Manager with a proven track record for staffing and recruiting in the manufacturing industry. She is focused on creating an employee-centered atmosphere that fosters acceptance, growth, and work-life balance while rewarding professional achievements.

Background

Laura began working with RoboVent in July 2021. Prior to joining the RoboVent team, she held a variety of HR roles for companies in the automotive industry. She is a Human Resources Generalist with strong experience in talent acquisition and retention, training and HR operations.

Areas of Expertise

- Recruiting/Talent Acquisition in the Manufacturing Industry
- Talent Retention and Employee Engagement
- Policy Adaptation and Implementation

Education

Laura earned her Bachelor's of Business Administration from Northwood University and is currently pursuing a Master's of Jurisprudence in Labor and Employment Law from Tulane University. She holds a SHRM-CP certification.

Get to Know Laura

Laura (Lo or Lorelei to close friends and family) loves the dynamic nature of the HR field, where no two days are the same. Friends would describe her as funny, determined, tough, sarcastic and fun-loving. She loves spending time with her family, including her fiancé, three children and their dog. Her favorite hobbies are travel, hiking, camping, yoga, reading, gardening and painting. She volunteers for Habitat for Humanity and Friends of Fosters.

“Every day I strive to be a trusted HR Business Partner and advisor. I am passionate about diversity & inclusion, equal pay, and helping current and future employees identify and execute their professional vision.”

