

The AV Syndicate

Venture Deal Flow at Your Fingertips

AV Syndications* are regular investment opportunities that AV brings to its investors. They give you the opportunity to gain exposure to a single company to personalize your portfolio.

As an AV investor, you can choose how frequently you would prefer to see Syndications and which opportunities you want to participate in. Minimum investments typically are $10k.

WHY PARTICIPATE

AV strongly believes that investing in Syndications only makes sense in the context of owning a large venture portfolio diversified by stage, geography, and other factors. However, we respect that venture selection is educational, engaging, and a valuable skill for investors to develop. It's also an opportunity to supplement your portfolio in sectors or stages where you feel underrepresented or where you want to lean in.

HOW DEALS ARE CHOSEN

All Syndications are investments sourced and sponsored by an actively managed AV fund that has negotiated extra allocation or where we have extra pro-rata allocation. Each investment has cleared AV's review process at the sponsoring fund level. The exact nature of each Syndication will vary, but they will reflect a variety of the ~200-300 investments AV makes every year.

Every syndication opportunity is also invested in by at least one of the AV funds.

Sample Syndications

Zapata AI's solutions are tailored to enterprises' domain-specific, industrial-scale business problems to drive growth, savings, and unprecedented insight.

YASSIR is a super app that offers a variety of on-demand services, such as ride hailing, banking, and food and grocery delivery. Operating in six countries and 45 cities, the app is particularly popular in the Maghreb region (Algeria, Morocco, and Tunisia) and parts of French-speaking Africa.

Cytovale is a diagnostics company that has created a novel, FDA-approved blood test for the quick detection of sepsis, the leading cause of death within hospitals. Its system can identify a patient's sepsis risk in under 10 minutes, aiding in efficient patient triage and treatment.

* NOTE: Syndications are private investment opportunities in single-asset or multi-asset funds, which give you a chance to gain exposure to specific private companies in which AV Funds will also be investing. Opportunity availability is governed by AV management based on member preference, calendar, availability, allocation, and other factors.

How It Works

- You determine how frequently you want to see Syndications: 1x a quarter, 1x a month, or as frequently as possible. Note that we can't guarantee Syndication timing or type, or that there will be a Syndication available in a given period, or that you will see all opportunities.
- We'll notify you about the Syndication and give you access to our portal with information about the offering (such as due diligence, terms, company slides, Investment Committee call recording, etc.) and a reservation form.
- Typically you have about a week to decide if you want to participate.
- We offer a deal discussion with the investing team if you want to participate.
- At the close of the offering, we will confirm your investment amount. If the offering is over-subscribed, you'll typically receive a pro-rata allocation.
- Funding is usually due 1-2 weeks after the offering closes. We accept ACH, checks, or fund your investment via a self-directed IRA. Learn more here.
- For more information, see our FAQs for AV Investors.

NOTE: AV reserves the right to change Syndication terms at any time and there can be no guarantee about the nature, timing, or frequency of offerings. Please note that not all Syndication opportunities will be made available to all investors and that AV will make Syndication opportunities available in its sole discretion.

The manager of the AV Funds is Alumni Ventures (AV), a venture capital firm. AV and the funds are not affiliated with or endorsed by any college or university. These materials are provided for informational purposes only. Offers of securities are made only to accredited investors pursuant to each fund's offering documents, which describe among other things the risks and fees associated with the Fund that should be considered before investing. The funds are long-term investments that involve a substantial risk of loss, including the loss of all capital invested. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Opportunities to invest in any security (of a Fund, of AV or in a syndication offering) is not a guarantee that you will be able to invest and are subject to all terms of the specific offering. Diversification cannot ensure a profit or protect against loss in a declining market. It is a strategy used to help mitigate risk.

AV offers smart, simple venture investing to accredited investors. Specifically, AV provides a path for individuals to own an actively managed diversified venture portfolio with a single investment co-investing alongside experienced VC firms. Traditionally, with limited investment capital and contacts, individual investors have had limited access to desirable deals alongside experienced VC firms, and even if they could access one or more such deals, it would take an inordinate amount of time, money and negotiation to build a diversified portfolio. With AV Funds, investors can choose from a number of funds to make a single investment to gain exposure to a diversified portfolio of investments selected by an experienced manager. AV Funds' simple fee mechanism permits investors to avoid constant capital calls throughout the life of the fund as found in other private investment vehicles.
