I. Our Commitment to Privacy

Your privacy is important to us. To best protect it and to provide you with the most accurate notice of how our data systems and your online choices affect your privacy, we make this notice easy to find, on our homepage and at every point where your personal information may be requested or submitted.

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

We may use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our Website and to share with advertisers. For example, we may tell an advertiser or sponsor the number of individuals who visited a certain page on our Website, or the individual numbers of men and women that completed our registration forms, but we do not disclose anything that could be used to identify those individuals.

Finally, we never use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in ways unrelated to the actual request or transaction. Anytime you request to be put on one of our mailing lists, you’ll be provided with an opportunity to opt-out.

II. Our Commitment to Children’s Privacy

Protecting the privacy of minors is especially important. For that reason, we don’t collect or maintain information from those we actually know are under 13.

III. The Information We Collect

Our websites provide you with opportunities to interact with Goodwill in a variety of ways.
