The Power To Move With You

You've Gotta Stand for Something

It's time to adjust to the ups and downs of office life. Embrace the new workday and a healthier work style with Coordinate height-adjustable two-leg or three-leg bases. Because you can't always take things sitting down.

Give the Entire Office a Raise

Talk about employee perks. Transform any worksurface into sit-to-stand with our 2-or 3-stage bases that promote healthy postures and improved focus while boosting morale. The big bonus? Its ability to support settings ranging from open and private offices to meeting spaces.

A. Winning Touchdown Space

Come on now, even nomads deserve a healthy place to squat between meetings.

B. Healthier Way to Work

Invite movement into every office and watch fresh ideas come to life.

C. Rise to the Occasion

Perfect for those executives who want to stay active, but are too busy to hit the gym at lunch.

Bending To Your Will

Built-in flexibility better than a yoga pose. Coordinate rectangle or corner cove surfaces come in a variety of sizes to fit anywhere. Optional features such as wire management and multiple control options add mobility, convenience, and tech support that's useful by any stretch.

Change Of Pace

Add variety to your work life with a 2-leg base with a rectangle worksurface or a 3-leg base with a corner cove worksurface that ranges from 24 3/8"H to 47 3/4"H.
