

Education Update: Governance

Delivered by Rachel Kershaw, Senior Governance and Academies Partner

Agenda

- Key areas of focus as schools return to full opening
- Key areas of focus for the summer term
- Recommended additional activity

Rachel Kershaw, Senior Governance and Academies Partner

Rachel has an extensive and diverse knowledge of a wide range of educational issues with over 20 years' experience working in the public sector. Over the last five years, Rachel has led the conversion process for over 25 Schools, supported the development of Multi-Academy Trusts and been part of the project board for the establishment of a Free School.

With her comprehensive knowledge of the education system, Rachel is committed to supporting school leaders to achieve the very best for their establishments.

Key Areas of Focus as Schools Return to Full Opening

Key areas of focus for the Trust Board or Governing Body as schools return to full opening:

Health and safety of employees and pupils within school

Curriculum planning and assessment arrangements

Health and wellbeing of the whole school community

Key Areas of Focus for the Summer Term

During the summer term there will also be a focus on:

- Financial planning and budget management
- Governor monitoring

Recommended Additional Activity

Recommended additional activity includes:

- Website reviews
- Updating governance information
- Review and reflection

Live Q&A Session – 20 April

Join our experts from EPM, Avec and Southalls on Tuesday 20th April from 2.00 - 3.00pm

We will be discussing the following topics:

Governance
Finance
Health & Safety
HR
Payroll
Safer Recruitment
Wellbeing

You can submit your questions in advance or ask them live on the day.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Thank you for joining us

T: 01480 431993

W: www.epm.co.uk

