

Made to Multiply Summit: Frequently Asked Questions

Q. What is the purpose of the Made to Multiply Summit?

A. The Made to Multiply Summit is your chance to receive mission-critical information about Made to Multiply, our new 5-year vision, and learn how you can join us as we seek to train 1 million North American believers—and countless others around the globe—to share the Gospel, make disciples, and plant churches.

Q. What should I expect during the Summit?

A. Event attendees will hear from keynote speakers, participate in a selection of topical breakout sessions, enjoy live praise & worship music, receive complimentary food & beverages, and more.

Q. When is the Summit?

A. The event kicks off on Fri., Oct. 29, 2021 at 8:30 am CDT and concludes on Sat. Oct. 30, 2021 at 2:00 pm CDT.

Q. Where will the Summit be held?

A. The event will be held at FiveStone Community Church located at 1600 W. Campbell Rd, Garland, Texas 75044.

Q. Who should attend the Summit?

A. All e3 / I Am Second staff are expected to attend.

Q. Will the Summit be live-streamed?

A. No. This event will not be live-streamed. As such, in-person attendance is strongly encouraged. A post-event recording of select sessions will be available after the event concludes.

Q. Are remote staff responsible for the costs related to travel and lodging for the Summit?

A. Remote staff are eligible to receive a one-time, $300 allowance to cover expenses related to travel & lodging for the Made to Multiply Staff Summit. You must register by September 15, 2021 to be eligible for the allowance. If your travel & lodging costs exceed the $300 allowance, you will be responsible for the difference. Stay tuned for the fund code, which is required for reimbursement. Note: This allowance is made possible because our travel expenses were greatly reduced in 2020 due to COVID-19. We do not plan to offer similar allowances in the future, so we encourage you to take advantage of this one-time offer.
