

PLATING GENERAL LABORER

ESSENTIAL QUALIFICATIONS

- Requires a high school diploma, minimum of 1-2 years related experience.
- Necessary math skills are essential; add, subtract, multiply and divide all units of measure.
- Must be able to read and comprehend written instructions from Work Orders and apply common sense understanding to safely carry out instructions furnished in written, oral, or diagrammatic form.
- The employee works in a factory environment and is occasionally exposed to wet, humid conditions and corrosive chemicals and occasionally exposed to fumes or airborne particles.
- Must be comfortable working around chemicals.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Accurately sets up pieces for plating according to the blueprint.
- Writes up job order ticket for each product in a clear and concise manner.
- Correctly and safely uses hand tools, alkaline, acids, solvents, and nickel stripping solution. Prepares parts for plating by applying masking materials and electrical contacts in a precise manner in order to make a plating assembly.
- Disassembles plating assemblies and removes masking materials such as plater's tape, lacquer, and putty from plated products and performs other post-treatment as required in a timely and efficient manner.
- Thoroughly cleans and inspects plating equipment after use.
- Performs routine hazardous waste management activities. Exhibits consistent productivity while adhering to ISO 9000 quality procedures.