

Virtual Accommodations in Co-Taught Virtual Classrooms

Tips on what a teacher can do while their co-teacher is leading a virtual lesson

Gather or monitor data on student questions, responses or engagement

Direct students to generate and submit questions

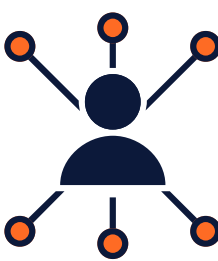

Send private feedback messages to students

Deliver private checks for understanding or exit tickets to students

Type sentence starters, sentence frames, chat stems or steps/directions for individual students

Provide links to individual students for additional materials, visuals or supports that match the content

Model note taking or annotating on documents

Verbally clarify or restate information in different terms

Writing color-coded notes on a virtual whiteboard

Prepare breakout session assignments based on students' needs