

Michelle Bishop

Michelle Bishop is the UK Growth Leader for Gallagher Mobility COE, part of the Multinational Benefits & Human Resources Practice.

Based in London, Michelle's focus is on the management and development of the benefits business related to international assignees, including health, business travel, life and disability insurances.

Prior to joining Gallagher, Michelle gained over 15 years of experience in international benefits, through a range of roles within consulting, insurance and HR.

In addition to her primary role, Michelle also manages Gallaghers International insurance relationships outside of the USA.

Michelle has extensive hands on knowledge of the assignee market and a particular focus on health and wellbeing (physical and emotional wellbeing, security and safety), supporting the delivery of our Gallagher Better WorksSM approach to employers globally.

Michelle holds a Bachelor of Arts in Social Sciences from Nottingham Trent University and is a frequent commentator on benefits related topics via social media and industry related press.
