

Do Your Part to Flatten the Curve

Following official guidance — like limiting nonessential travel and self-isolating — can help keep cases of coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) to manageable levels.

If people continue to disobey orders and ignore this deadly threat, the U.S. health care system will not be able to handle it.

Take COVID-19 seriously. Do your part to flatten the curve.