

As the name suggests, an automatic replenishment system (ARS) primarily generates replenishment orders. The logic of ARS can be embedded into organization's ERP systems.

Benefits

- Reduced purchase and administrative costs.
- Higher inventory turnover.
- Accurate and flexible reporting.
- Better cash flow.
- Better customer service level and customer satisfaction.

Who benefits?

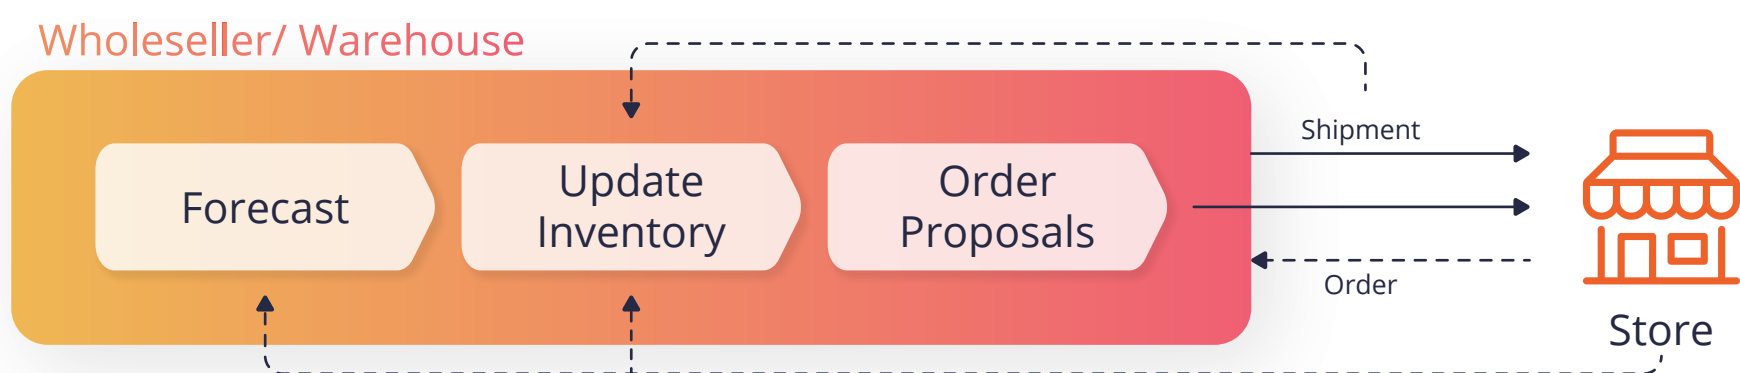

Retailers with :

- Low product availability,
- Laborious manual replenishment planning,
- Excessive replenishment expenses
- Higher amount of capital locked up as inventory.

Manual Replenishment

Automatic Replenishment

Reduction in food wastage in grocery supply chains : 20%