

COURSE OVERVIEW • EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE FOR DEVELOPING TEAMS

If you are struggling to create effective working relationships within your team then Emotional Intelligence for Developing Teams has been crafted for someone just like you. Learn about the four elements of emotional intelligence and how to build highly engaged and effective teams.

Is your team constantly in conflict, are people in the team gossiping about each other and not working effectively, do you have a team member who is withdrawn from the group? If you don't do anything, this situation will get worse and doing nothing won't make you a better leader. Take our Emotional Intelligence for Developing Teams course to learn the four elements emotional of intelligence and how to build highly engaged and effective teams.

Learning Outcomes:

- Learn about the four elements of Emotional Intelligence
- Identify how teamwork through emotional intelligence can lead to better outcomes
- Establish how to build effective teams using emotional intelligence
- Develop and build your emotional intelligence skills
- Create an Emotional Intelligence action plan

Who is this course for?

- New managers or team leaders wanting to learn how to increase their emotional intelligence
- Manager or team leaders having difficulty with relationship building
- Employees who are failing to thrive in the organisation

