Judgments must be credible and fair

Carol Taylor-Pizzi-Gibbon, Write

We need to work together to ensure that the standards of inspection are met.

The role of inspectors is vital in upholding the integrity of the system.

Without proper oversight, we risk compromising the accuracy of our judgments.

It is our duty to hold ourselves to the highest standards and maintain the public's trust.

The success of our profession depends on our ability to maintain credibility.

We must be vigilant in our work to ensure that our findings are accurate and fair.

The integrity of our system is at stake, and we cannot afford to take any shortcuts.

Let us work together to uphold the standards and integrity that our profession demands.
