Bar Admission Checklist

The Virginia bar admissions process is lengthy and intricate, but we're here to guide you. There are many steps involved as the date of the exam nears. Start at least a year (or more, if you can) in advance of the bar exam date. Here's what you need to know and do for Virginia Bar admission:

☐ Create NCBE, VBBE Accounts | Before You Apply

My NCBE Number: ..... My VBBE Account: .....

All law students are required to create an NCBE (National Conference of Bar Examiners) Account that comes with a unique NCBE Number for identification purposes. You will need this number to be able to take the MBE (Multistate Bar Exam), which is developed by the NCBE. The MBE is administered on day two of the Virginia Bar Exam.

Most students create an NCBE account when registering for the MPRE. Register with the NCBE at: ncbex.org/exams/mpre/registration/

You will then need to create an account with the VBBE (Virginia Board of Bar Examiners). The VBBE provides a helpful guide to walk you through the online application, as well as a checklist for the supplemental forms you will need to submit when you apply for the bar exam. Start and submit your VBBE application at: barexam.virginia.gov/bar/barapps.html

☐ Take the MPRE | Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam

We recommend taking the MPRE any time during your 2L year or as early in your 3L year as possible. Virginia requires an MPRE scaled score of 85 or higher which may be achieved at any time before taking the bar exam or prior to the expiration of a passing Virginia bar exam score. Passing Virginia bar exam scores are valid for 5 years from the date of the examination. The MPRE requirement must be met before you can be licensed. A raw score of approximately 32 correct out of 50 usually converts to a scaled score of 85. Applicants must provide verification of their MPRE score for admission to the Virginia Bar. You can request that your score be sent directly to Virginia when you take the MPRE, or you can download and submit a copy of your score report.

The MPRE is a two-hour, 60-question multiple-choice exam developed by the NCBE and administered in the spring, summer, and fall. When registering for the MPRE, students can select one of two dates offered at a time (see chart below) on a first come, first served basis.

MPRE dates	Registration deadline (fee: $160)	Scan for more information
August 13 or 14, 2024	June 12, 2024
November 7 or 8, 2024	September 18, 2024

As part of the bar exam application process, you'll provide background information that helps the VBBE conduct a character and fitness investigation.

You will be asked to disclose details about your personal, academic, work and financial histories, as well as information on any criminal or civil proceedings to which you were a party. Candor is key. You will also need to submit copies of documents like your credit report, military service record, driving records and proof of citizenship. As part of the character and fitness review, all applicants must submit fingerprints and passport-style photos so the VBBE can verify your identity and obtain copies of any documents necessary for their investigation.

After you've submitted a complete application, the Board will make a determination on your character and fitness. The duration of the review process varies depending on the nature of the investigation.
