

Clement Tan

Trainer

Business Presentations

About Clement

An agile professional with a long history in the service industry, Clement is a highly energetic and agile professional who is deeply committed to the personal growth of his learners.

As the director of Learning & Development at Mandarin Orchard, his ambitions lies in being on the cutting-edge of teaching advancements through design thinking training and facilitation, with an emphasis on being learner-centric with clear learning outcomes, allowing students to learn with goals and objectives via a cognitive learning method.

Qualifications

- University of South Australia, Singapore, Masters of Social Science
- Institute for Adult Learning (IAL), Singapore WSQ Advanced Certificate in Training and Assessment (ACTA)

Work Experience

- Naval Officer, Singapore Armed Forces Dec 1988- May 2012
- Learning and Organisational Development Consultant Joint Partnership between Singapore, Brunei, Malaysia May 2012 - Jan 2018
- Director, Learning and Development Mandarin Orchard, Singapore Jan 2018 - Present