

Education is about caring. With today's schools facing more challenges than ever, selecting your workers' compensation insurance provider is crucial.

copperpoint.com/business-insurance/industries/education

Targeted Business Operations

- Elementary Schools
- Child Care Centers
- Private, Charter and Public Schools
- Colleges

Our specialized industry expertise and proven track record means that we understand the unique risks and challenges of the education industry.

- Since 1930, we have been a trusted partner of the education industry.
- We have experience with thousands of schools of all sizes.
- Relationships that go back more than 75 years.

When it's time to choose an insurance partner, you can count on our experience and knowledge to bring peace of mind and the protection you need for your education insurance needs.

Industry Leading Services*

We build relationships and deliver results through our high touch, local service model. We get to know you and the challenges you are facing in the education industry. When we work together, you're not just a number, you're a valued business partner.

*Available services will depend on your premium size and service needs.

Loss Control

- Extensive risk management expertise in the education industry
- Focus on identifying and mitigating risk exposures
- Program enhancement/development/loss analysis
- Facility assessments
- Supervisor / management training
- Hazard analysis and control
- Ergonomic evaluations
- Safety culture development
- Streaming safety videos
- Loss control resources

Claims

- A full suite of in-house claims services
- Experienced claims adjusters averaging 15 years of experience
- Specialized claims expertise:
 - » Emphasis on communication with all parties
 - » Early intervention and establishment of treatment plans
 - » Focus on return to work with modified, alternate or transitional duty
- Workers' compensation focused attorneys and litigation experts who drive the best possible claims outcomes on files where the injured worker has retained an attorney
- Access to nurse case managers who manage medical expenses and identify opportunities for timely claims closures
- Zero tolerance for fraud

