

PacificComp Quick Reference Guide Website Launch for copperpoint.com

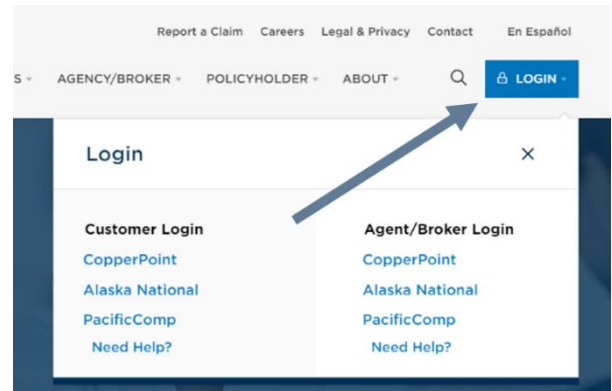

PacificComp's parent company has launched a new website at www.copperpoint.com that showcases the full capabilities of the family of companies and is designed to provide users with the tools and information needed in an easy-to-navigate format. While www.pacificcomp.com will remain in place for customers, here are tips on what's new.

1. Are there any changes to how I access the PacificComp Portals?

No, there are no changes to the PacificComp Portals or how you access it. You will still access the portal login link found on the homepage of pacificcomp.com.

If you are on the copperpoint.com website, links to the portals are located by clicking the login button menu in the top right corner of the navigation.

Within the login menu, there are helpful resources available for policyholders and agency/brokers.

2. How can policyholders find out about CopperPoint's upcoming educational webinars?

The new website includes the ability to subscribe to receive updates on new content added to the website including webinars and blogs.
