Important Update

Dear Valued Agency/Broker Partner,

In our ongoing efforts to keep you informed and provide you with pertinent and timely information on COVID-19, I want to share a message from Marc Schmittlein, CopperPoint President & CEO, that will be shared broadly this week.

We recognize that businesses may be facing significant challenges during this period of COVID-19 and economic disruption. We value our relationships and we have implemented temporary business procedures to provide flexibility, should policyholders be challenged to pay their insurance policy premiums.

Please click here to read Marc's full message in our COVID-19 Resource Center on our website.

I want you to have advance notice of the many steps we are taking. Thank you again for your partnership and please share this information with your team and throughout your organization.

Stay safe and well!
