

GAP YEAR GOLF

Is your collegiate golf program affected by the coronavirus? Didn't get the school you want? Do you need more time to hone your game? This is the program for you.

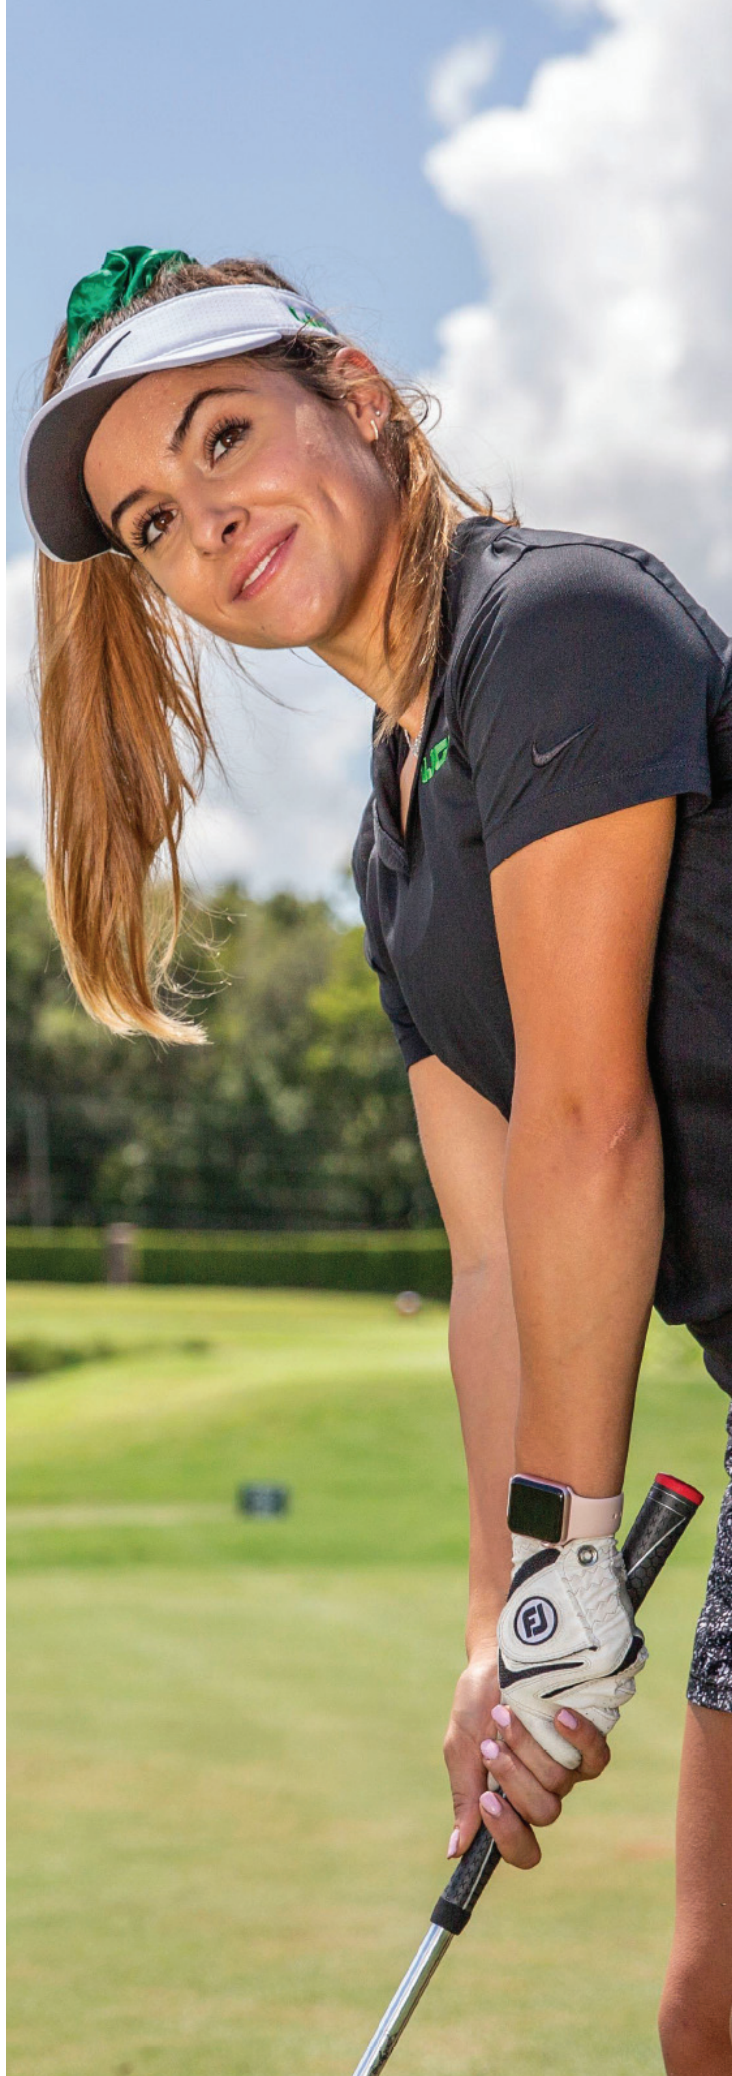

IJGA has developed Gap Year Golf to help you raise your game while colleges and universities sort things out with COVID-19.

Offering townhouse-living, world-class golf and fitness instruction, plus full access to a golf course and training grounds, Gap Year Golf provides a safe place to live, participate in online learning, and play golf in these uncertain times. With two locations to serve you - Bishops Gate, FL and Bluffton, SC - IJGA has created safe and secure environments to help you prepare for an eventual return to collegiate competition.

IJGA
INTERNATIONAL JUNIOR GOLF ACADEMY

Bishops Gate, Florida

Located on beautiful Lake Harris, IJGA Bishops Gate is the perfect place to integrate distance learning, golf training, and a healthy social experience. This full-service, gated campus offers townhouse living, onsite catering, a private golf course, and 95,000 sq/ft of training space. The program includes training sessions with our exceptional golf coaches and fitness instructors – plus full access to our pool, tennis and basketball courts, soccer field, fishing pier and more.

Bluffton, South Carolina

Located a few miles east of Hilton Head Island, our Bluffton campus offers well-appointed townhouses, a Himalayas practice course, indoor chipping and putting area, advanced swing technology and world-class coaching with Jonathan Yarwood, named a Top 100 Teacher in America by Golf Magazine. The program also includes golf privileges at Pinecrest Golf Club – a five-minute ride from campus.

Both locations offer daily and weekly flexibility to meet your schedule while providing you with all that is necessary to succeed.

About IJGA

IJGA is the world’s leading golf boarding academy with a thriving international student population. Founded in 1995, it has produced many great golfers, with alumni going on to attend many prestigious colleges with strong golf programs. Our alumni also join the professional ranks, some winning majors and even Olympic medals.

Come elevate your game and prepare to emerge from the COVID-19 pandemic better than ever.
