What are the risks of investing?

Risk indicator for the Conservative Fund:1

The risk indicator is rated from 1 (low) to 7 (high). The rating reflects how much the value of the fund's assets goes up and down. A higher risk generally means higher potential returns over time, but more ups and downs along the way.

To help you clarify your own attitude to risk, you can seek financial advice or work out your risk profile at <https://www.sorted.org.nz/tools/investor-kickstarter>.

Note that even the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment, and there are other risks that are not captured by this rating.

This risk indicator is not a guarantee of a fund's future performance. The risk indicator is based on the returns data for the past 5 years. While risk indicators are usually relatively stable, they do shift from time to time. The risk indicator will continue to be updated in future fund updates.

See the product disclosure statement (PDS) for more information about the risks associated with investing in this fund.

Currency hedging can apply to some of the asset classes this fund invests in. The level of currency hedging for foreign assets is managed between 0% and 100% with a New Zealand Dollar target exposure of 90% of the net asset value of the fund. This may change over time depending on the Manager's view of the relative strength (or weakness) of the New Zealand dollar. As at 31 December 2020 the actual New Zealand Dollar exposure was 92% of the net asset value of the fund. The fund's exposure to assets denominated in foreign currencies was 34% of the net asset value of the fund, of which 78% was hedged. This means the fund's unhedged foreign currency exposure was 8% of the net asset value of the fund. Notes

1. Market index returns as well as the fund's actual returns have been used to fill in the risk indicator, as this fund has not yet been in operation for five years. Market index returns have been used from 1 January 2016 to 31 July 2018 and actual returns after that. As a result of those returns being used, the risk indicator may provide a less reliable indicator of the potential future volatility of the fund.
2. An estimate has been used to calculate the underlying fund fees which are included in 'Other management and administration charges'. Underlying fund fees have been estimated using end of month holdings and the total expense ratio (TER) stated in the underlying funds' disclosure statements.
3. Other is comprised of alternative investments: investments that fall outside the main asset classes and can include absolute return funds and commodity investments.
