PCI will ensure you properly leverage Talent Management to prepare your workforce for the future by creating development plans and providing learning opportunities that engage and inspire. PCI configures custom talent management modules to align with our client's internal HR processes. We provide training and support to ensure smooth internal roll outs for the following modules:

Acquisition

Recruit strategically so that you never have to push a project start date due to lack of appropriate resources. When you pair an efficient acquisition process with highly effective onboarding, you will have new hires contributing to project profitability sooner than ever.

Development

Identify skillset gaps in your succession plan and mindfully prepare your workforce for advancement. Easily identify successors based on required skills, competencies, job experience, and potential. Employees will stay engaged as you invest in their growth and you will keep projects staffed with the top talent in the marketplace.

Learning

Automate certification tracking and focus on creating an educational environment for your workforce. Utilize ongoing learning opportunities for groups or individuals that align with succession and development plans and get new hires acclimated quickly.
