

ENGAGE YOUR LEARNERS AS CUSTOMERS

Destiny One is a student-centric SaaS application crafted specifically for the business of non-traditional higher education

Built from the ground up for the unique needs of non-traditional students and programs, the Destiny One software platform helps universities and colleges engage their students with world-class customer service.

Destiny One is a multi-language software platform that is used by top institutions across the U.S. and Canada to enable the business excellence needed to support growth and enhance customer engagement with learners.

Non-traditional programs managed by Destiny One include:

Professional Education

Continuing Studies

Corporate Engagement

Contract Training

Licensure Programs

Internal Employee Training

Workforce Training

Membership Programs

Preparatory Programs

Events and Conferences

International and ESL Programs

Certificate Programs

Online and Distance Education

Summer Session

K-12 For Credit

Kids Camps

Degree Completion

Skills Development

Lifelong and General Interest

DESTINY ONE VISUAL OVERVIEW

Why our clients select Destiny One

Destiny One serves the diverse needs of non-traditional students so institutions can manage every learner and every program with precision and personalization.

Destiny One fosters world-class customer engagement with learners so institutions can attract, manage and retain learners for a lifetime.

Destiny One makes staff more efficient and effective so they can focus on managing high value tasks and growing programs.

Destiny One offers gold-standard security and integrates into the campus computing environment so information always travels safely and seamlessly.

Destiny One is the student-centric software platform that lets schools engage with their learners in the way that today's consumers expect.

Visit www.destinysolutions.com to learn more.

