1.7. Payment

You and SMCNSW agree to comply with their obligations in relation to Goods and Services Tax (GST) under the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 and any other applicable legislation governing GST.

- (1) The amount payable by you will be the amount set out in the invoice. This will be calculated as:
 - (a) the amount for the Goods or Services (or both) as set out in the Quote and any Additional Charges, or
 - (b) where no Quote has been provided by SMCNSW, SMCNSW's usual charges for the goods or services (or both) as described in the Application.

All payments must be paid to SMCNSW and cleared:

- (2) on or prior to the due date specified on the tax invoice issued to you or
- (3) where the circumstance requires, a minimum of (Twenty-Four) 24 hours before date of service/supply of goods. (pre-payment date)
- (4) If any invoice is due but unpaid and or not cleared, SMCNSW may withhold the provision of any further Goods or Services until overdue amounts are paid in full. This includes any payments being made by a third party on your behalf.
- (5) SMCNSW may in its complete discretion apply any payment received from you to any amount owing by you to SMCNSW. You are not entitled to retain any money owing to SMCNSW

You must pay all charges without any set off, counter claim or deduction.

- (6) All costs and expenses associated with collecting overdue amounts, including (but not limited to) legal fees and internal costs and expenses of SMCNSW, are to be paid by the Customer as a debt due and payable under SCTC.
- (7) Nothing in this paragraph affects the Customer's rights for any alleged failure of a guarantee under the Australian Consumer Law.

1.8. Commencement and Expiry

Your agreement starts when you:

- (1) sign the application and we accept your deed or agreement
- (2) We receive documented authorisation on your behalf
- (3) In certain circumstances, when you pay the amount quoted immediately

This agreement ends if;

- (a) You do not comply with the agreement
- (b) If you fail to pay
- (c) When the licence has been transferred

1.9. Termination

In certain circumstances you may terminate this SCTC or cancel the provision of any goods or Services by;

1. giving us 30 days' notice either in writing or oral notice; or
2. giving us notice, if:
 - (a) we breach a material term of this SCTC and we can remedy that breach, but we do not remedy that breach within 30 days after you give us notice requiring us to do so; or
 - (b) we breach a material term of the agreement and we cannot remedy that breach, and the breach was not as a result of circumstances reasonably attributable to you.

In certain circumstances we may terminate this SCTC or withhold the provision of services;

1.10. Cancellation

1. If there is a cancellation of the Application by the Buyer, SMCNSW has the right to claim compensation for any losses suffered by SMCNSW as a result of such cancellation. We may charge an administration in fee relation to a cancellation.

1.11. SMCNSW Policy and Procedures

SMCNSW may make such provision as it considers necessary for the following:

1. the setting aside of sections for different types and classes of interments,
2. the establishment of standards of construction and design for monuments and structures,
3. the size, multiple use and location of interment sites,
4. interments in vaults, crypts, mausoleum, or any structure on the land
5. the erection or installation of structures and the making of inscriptions,
6. the carrying out of work by monumental masons,
7. the qualifications required by, and the security deposits required to be lodged by, monumental masons,
8. the removal, replacement and maintenance of structures,
9. the placing of vases, statuettes, jars, bottles or other items of embellishment on or near graves, monuments, crypts or vaults,
10. the improvement and maintenance of the cemetery,
11. the making of arrangements for the care of interment sites on an annual (or longer term) or another basis,
12. the supply of goods and services incidental to the conduct of interments and other matters relating to the cemetery,
13. the conduct of religious or other ceremonies of interment or commemoration,
14. the disposition and memorialization of cremated human remains,
15. landscaping and setbacks from stormwater and drainage canals and similar watercourses and structures,
16. scope of authorised work, duration of work, completion dates,
17. safety, quality, aesthetic, and maintenance requirements
18. any other matter relating to the management of the cemetery or crematorium consistent with, any applicable law, regulation or court order.

2. Interment Rights

2.1. Types of Interment Rights

1. SMCNSW may grant an interment right entitling the person or persons to whom it is granted the exclusive right of interment in a specified interment site:
 - (a) in perpetuity (a perpetual interment right), or
 - (b) for the period (a renewable interment right).

2.2. Conditions of Grant

A Grant is not issued unless:

- (a) SMCNSW has accepted your application for a Right of Interment and
- (b) you have paid the full purchase price.

Grant of license under s2 does not affect the operation of any regulations under the Public Health Act 2010 relating to cemeteries.

1. The agreement grants the applicant only the reservation of the right of interment and does not grant, represent, confer or provide a right or certificate to;
 - (a) the land, roads, paths, or any access area to or from any lot of a cemetery, mausoleum or crypt, other than as a means of access, or

- (b) the gardens, structures, buildings or other property of a cemetery, mausoleum or crypt.
- (c) any land defined as Crown Lands Act 1986 where SMCNSW is the appointed or registered as Land Manager.

- (a) An exclusive right of burial or disposition of the remains of the deceased in the nominated burial place(s)
- (b) The authority to give written consent for a person's remains being interred in the nominated burial place(s)
- (c) The authority to provide written instructions for all arrangements associated with the nominated burial place(s)

3. Site Specifics

(a) Capacity

- (i) You accept that the interment site capacity may only be representative of the potential availability as such the actual capacity of an interment site will be determined at the time of interment. SMCNSW does not warrant the actual capacity and disclaims liability should the capacity differ.

(b) Use

- (i) For all burial positions the capacity for full coffin burials must be exhausted prior to the interment of cremated remains.

4. An interment right granted must be exercised within a period of 50 years from the issue date of the certificate.

2.3. Order of succession to a Right of Interment

1. If the Holder of Right dies, or cannot be found the Right of Interment (and all associated rights) will be passed to the next person entitled to be the Holder of Right in the following order:

- (a) where there are two or more Holders of Right of Interment, the Right of Interment will pass to the surviving Holder(s) of Right;
- (b) where the Holder of the Right dies, the Right of Interment will pass in accordance with the will of that person or,
- (c) if there is no will, in accordance with law.

2. Any person claiming to be entitled to have the Right of Interment transferred to them must comply with the requirements in (2.4) and be either;

- (a) either be as executor or
- (b) administrator or as the person entitled under the will
- (c) under the rules of intestacy to inherit the Right of Interment. (2.4)

2.4. Rules of intestacy to apply to interment rights not bequeathed

1. If the holder of an interment right dies and has not bequeathed the interment right, the interment right is to be dealt with as if it were personal property forming part of the estate of an intestate.

2. A person to whom an interment right devolves as a result of intestacy does not become the holder of the interment right until the SMCNSW's register is amended to indicate that fact.

3. On application made by a person to whom an interment right has devolved as a result of intestacy, SMCNSW will assess and amend the cemetery register so as to indicate that the person has become the holder of the interment right.

4. An applicant's application under this section must comply with all the following requirements;

- (a) must be in the form approved by SMCNSW
- (b) provide death certificate
- (c) provide any last wills and testaments
- (d) provide any probate, or other relevant court documents
- (e) provide any requested identification
- (f) provide any other information requested

2.5. Authorisation to exercise

(a) Applications to SMCNSW to exercise a Right of Interment (interment into, or memorialisation of, a Place of Interment) must be made to SMCNSW by or with the written authority of, the Holder of Right and SMCNSW's authorisation obtained prior to any application to exercise of a Right of Interment to inter human remains.
