What other nonprofit organizations are saying about Qgiv:

“Because Qgiv is so robust, it gives us opportunities for use at all kinds of events and programs that are fundraising-related. I really like the event module. It's super easy to use. For me, because we do have quite a few fundraising events throughout the year, it's a very helpful tool where people can register, give tribute gifts, or make larger contributions all in one place — plus it looks good!”
