Description
Join us for an evening under the stars as we raise funds for the needs in our community. This holiday season, get up as we celebrate our success this year to raise money for the homeless in our community. You are the reason behind our success and this is our way of thanking you for supporting us!

During our annual block for dinner gala, we'll have food, drinks, and great music! You'll have the chance to see how your contributions have made an impact on our community and helped those in need.

Come dance the night away and celebrate with us!

Make an ongoing gift and help more animals!
Quincy, your steady support helps us provide food, shelter, and medical care to thousands of animals!
